

SMALL FEE, BIG REWARDS!

Due to increasing operational costs, a NRH Senior Center facility fee has been adopted and will take effect January 1, 2020.

The annual facility fee has been adopted to help support the daily operational expenses of the NRH Senior Center.

The projected revenue will support 9% of operational costs. While this is a new fee for the NRH Senior Center, the annual facility fee is an excellent value for the services received.

Our exceptional team will continue to serve you at the highest level of service you have come to expect.

Everyone who participates in any senior class, program, or activity will need to purchase an annual NRH Senior Center Facility Fee card or pay a daily guest pass.

NRH Senior Center
6000 Hawk Avenue
817-427-6695
www.nrhcentre.com

Frequently Asked Questions

Why is the facility use fee being implemented?

- The annual facility fee has been adopted to help support the daily operational expenses of the NRH Senior Center.
- The projected revenue will support 9% of operational costs.

What does my annual NRH Senior Center facility fee cover?

- This fee partially supports daily operations of the senior center and participation in existing events and programs that do not currently incur a fee.

Do other Senior Center program fees and donations continue to be collected?

- Yes, if a program has an existing fee, those fees will continue to directly support that individual program.

When is the annual facility fee due?

- The NRH Senior Center facility fee is an annual fee. The expiration date of your paid fee is one year from date of purchase. The NRH Senior Center annual facility fee will be available for purchase beginning December 16, 2019.
- Existing Senior Center members will not need a new blue facility card.

How much are the fees?

- The NRH Senior Center facility fee for NRH Residents is $10 per person annually (proof of residency required). The facility use fee for Non-Residents is $30 per person annually. The facility fee term is one year from the date of purchase. Guests without a NRH Senior Center facility card can pay a daily use drop-in fee of $3.