

James N. Austin, Jr.

Austin Company Commercial Real Estate Company

James N. Austin, Jr., ("Jim"), is the owner/founder/broker of Austin Company Commercial Real Estate in Fort Worth, Texas. The Austin Company was established in 1981 and serves the Fort Worth-Dallas metro area with commercial real estate and property management services; after beginning in the business after training with industry veteran Sam McCall. Jim Austin is considered an expert in the commercial real estate field. He also speaks on the subject as a program presenter at workshops and associations as an invited professional. He currently serves on several appraisal boards for the right-of-way condemnations by the Texas Department of Transportation. Jim served on the Texas Real Estate Commission (1999-2008). He has put together over thirty investment groups (limited partnerships). Jim is also a recipient of the coveted Charles D. Tandy Commercial REALTOR® Award (2001). This award is presented annually to honor the member of the Society of Commercial REALTORS® who best exemplifies the highest professional standards of a commercial REALTOR®.

Austin made headlines as one of three members of a court-appointed commission that settled a land condemnation case for Santa Fe Pacific Corp.'s giant intermodal facility at Fort Worth Alliance Airport. Jim was also one of 10 asset managers for a major land auction by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. Austin handled 35 of the 125 assets offered in Tarrant County selling over 5 million. He is a past member of the Commercial Investment Division of the Greater Fort Worth Association of Realtors. He has worked for financial institutions including Woodhaven National Bank, Bank of North Texas and Team Bank as well as area hospitals. Jim has moved from the standard sales and leasing work into appraisals and auction management. Austin also served on the Texas Real Estate Commission, as a Commissioner for eight (8) years. He is a 1976 graduate of Howard University, Washington, D.C., receiving his BA in Business. Most recently Jim was selected to be a part of the Fort Worth Business Press 2017 Class of Minority Leaders in Business Award recipient, based on professional achievements, community contributions, philanthropy and other milestones and awards. One of Jim's strengths is his ability to network with people. His involvements include networking with business associates, social and fraternal friends and non-profit boards. Through this experience, he found that although he interfaced with diverse people with diverse interest, there were a great number of common interests and goals. Jim Austin Online (JAO) has proved to be a resounding success. Originated in the fall of 2008 with 200 friends signing up to receive the e-newsletter, JAO now has a community of over 20,000 members. In conjunction with the weekly newsletter, JAO offers benefits that are exclusively found on JAO website or e-newsletter such as monthly business lunches with high profile individuals as host such as gubernatorial candidates and other relevant business and political figures. JAO recently re-launched an updated website with additional content including Entertainment, Business, Dining, Community and Sports. (www.jimaustinonline.com)

m.d.leyman@gmail.com

2310 Stonebridge Lane, Mansfield

GREETINGS,

You will be receiving your ballot from Tarrant Appraisal District (TAD) which will provide candidates appointed to the TAD Board of Directors effective January 1, 2022 for a two year term.

There are a total of 5,005 votes. The nominees who receive the most votes (the top 5) will be your new board. Your votes can be split among the nominees.

I believe that my differentiators are strong with the most important being fair and equal judgment. When you consider candidates you will see my experience is unparalleled. I have been serving citizens my entire career which is over 50 years now. I have seen a great deal and it's this broad base of knowledge and experience that makes it easier to make good decisions, it's easier to predict what will happen in the future. No matter what the situation is, common sense should always prevail which is the most important characteristic in a person who is going to make decisions for the people and that I have.

I want to thank you in advance for your consideration and would appreciate your support. Attached you'll find my profile. You may contact me for any further information.

Tony Pompa - President
Julie Pompa – Vice President

Hi my name is Tony Pompa. My wife and I are the proud parents of five wonderful daughters and one feisty English Pointer boy. I am the president of Pompa's General Assembly, In. It is a business based here in Arlington that we started more than 25 years ago, while still in college, to provide product assembly services to large national retailers such as Home Depot, Lowe's, Sears and Wal-Mart. We provide services to retail locations throughout the Southwest. In 2019, we also launched All Cargo Express which is a delivery service partner for Amazon. We deliver about 100,000 Amazon packages a week in the Ft. Worth area.

Since arriving in Arlington in 1998, Julie and I have dedicated ourselves to raising our five girls, growing our business and serving the community. I have served on the Miller Elementary PTA, coached several YMCA Girls soccer teams from ages five to twelve, served as president of our Home Owners Association for two years, worked on the Futures 2025 committee, the Future Financial Committee for the AISD, the Superbowl Planning Committee and the AISD Bond Election Committee and was in the Leadership Arlington graduating class of 2008, BEST CLASS EVER!!. I served as an Arlington ISD Trustee from 2011 to 2014. I currently serve on the following boards: Lena Pope Home, Inc., North Texas Higher Education Authority and the Deer Wood Park HOA as VP. I am a current member of Downtown Arlington Rotary and a former co-chair of the Santa Fe International Folk Art Market at Arlington.

On the business side, I have served on the Arlington Chamber of Commerce and the Arlington Hispanic Chamber of commerce boards and in various committees within those organizations. I was also a founding board member of the Ft. Worth chapter of The Entrepreneur's Organization.

I graduated with Magna Cum Laude honors from St. Edward's University in Austin, TX. I majored in Psychology and served as Vice President of the Psychology Association on campus. I also was accepted into the Honors program my sophomore year and received the Dean's list recognition for every semester of my college career. After graduating from St. Edward's, I continued my involvement with the school by serving on the Alumni Association board of directors from 2001 to 2005

Sincerely,
Tony Pompa.
