GENERAL DESCRIPTION:

NRH will run an exercise scenario site for law enforcement groups around the region over a twenty four hour period that weekend. This site will be one of about fifty others that are being hosted around the Metroplex. The full scale exercise is intended to assess the North Central Texas Regions' ability to successfully respond to and manage multiple emergencies occurring simultaneously and to enhance regional response to large-scale incidents.

The attached agreement will authorize North Richland Hills to host a site through the North Central Texas Council of Governments.
