A short-term rental use that would exceed the density limitation of subsection (b), a property owner may apply to the zoning board of adjustment for a special exception in accordance with Division 2, Article II, Chapter 118 of this code. The board may consider factors such as the following:
 1. Whether operation as a short-term rental in excess of the density limitation will adversely impact the neighborhood in which the property is located, including whether it will negatively impact the residential nature of the neighborhood;
 2. Whether such operation is likely to disrupt adjacent residents' right to the quiet enjoyment of their property (for example, is noise likely to affect neighboring residents);
 3. Whether such operation will substantially impact nearby streets or traffic, including whether the property has limited parking; and
 4. Whether other short-term rentals in excess of the density limitation are already operating in that multi-family residential building.
- e. Continuance of Operation. For properties located in zoning districts where short-term rental uses are not permitted by right, the owner of a property used as a short-term rental prior to September 8, 2025, that is able to come into compliance with the requirements of Article XII, Chapter 18 of this code, including obtaining a permit and paying all hotel occupancy taxes owed for the property, within ninety (90) days of September 8, 2025, may continue to operate so long as the owner maintains compliance with all the requirements of Article XII, Chapter 18 of this code.

f. Discontinuance of Operations.

1. The owner of a property used as a short-term rental who is unable, fails, or refuses to timely obtain a permit for operation as a short-term rental pursuant to subsection d., shall discontinue the short-term rental use within ninety (90) days of September 8, 2025, or thirty (30) days from the notice of permit denial, whichever is later.
2. All short-term rental uses located in zoning districts where short-term rentals uses are not permitted by right and issued a permit under Article XII, Chapter 18 of this code shall discontinue the short-term rental use within thirty (30) days after the revocation or denial of the renewal of the short-term rental permit. A short-term rental use that is discontinued under this subsection shall not be resumed.
3. All short-term rental uses located in zoning districts where short-term rental uses are not permitted by right shall be subject to the abandonment provisions contained in Section 118-153(i) of this code. A short-term rental use abandoned under this subsection shall immediately discontinue the short-term rental use upon the effective date of the abandonment. A short-term rental use that is abandoned under this subsection shall not be resumed.”

SECTION 5: This Ordinance shall be cumulative of all provisions of ordinances and of the Code of Ordinances, City of North Richland Hills, Texas, as amended, except when the provisions of this Ordinance are in direct conflict with the provisions of such ordinances and such code, in which event the conflicting provisions of such ordinances and such code are hereby repealed.

SECTION 6: It is hereby declared to be the intention of the City Council that the sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, and phrases of this Ordinance are severable, and if any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Ordinance shall be declared unconstitutional by the valid judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, such unconstitutionality shall not affect any of the remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, and phrases of this Ordinance, since the same would have been enacted by the City Council without the incorporation in this Ordinance of any such unconstitutional section, paragraph, sentence, clause, or phrase.
