GENERAL DESCRIPTION:

At each Council meeting a member of the governing body announces upcoming events in the City and recognizes an employee that exemplifies the City's core values.

Announcements:

Volunteers from AARP are assisting residents with their tax returns each Monday and Thursday through April 17th at the NRH Library. This free service is available to taxpayers of all ages. To make an appointment or get more information, please call the Library at 817-427-6814.

New York Times Bestselling Author Joanne Fluke will be returning to the North Richland Hills Library on March 4th for the official launch of her latest book Banana Cream Pie Murder. The event will include a paid Friends of the Library reception at noon, followed by a free book talk and book signing starting at 1 p.m. Visit the library's website or call 817-427-6800 for more information.

Kudos Korner:

Tonight we recognize:

Nora Garcia with Animal Services – An elderly resident called after hours asking for help when several dogs got into her backyard. Nora arrived quickly, returned the dogs to their correct yards and then helped the resident nail fence pickets back in place. The resident was very appreciative of Nora's efforts and felt she went above and beyond. She is a great asset to the city, the resident said.
